Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you vary, renew, extend or reinstate the contract.

This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or renewed, varied, extended or reinstated as applicable). We may provide further information on your duty prior to any renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract in respect of a claim to the extent our interests are prejudiced by your failure to comply with the duty of disclosure, cancel the contract or both.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Failure to comply with your duty of disclosure, especially concerning your driving history, including, but not limited to, speeding fines, could affect the result of any subsequent claim made on the policy to the extent our interests are prejudiced by your non-compliance and could lead to a claim being declined.
